

Orr, Gordon D., Jr. FAIA

 MADISON — Gordon D. Orr, Jr. FAIA, died peacefully on Saturday, November 25, 2000, at the age of 74. An architect and architectural historian, Gordon is survived by his wife, Elayne; sons, Blair and Keith; daughter-in-law, Robin; grandchildren, Abigail and Olivia; sister, Joan; and nieces, Lisa, Sissy, and Kathleen. He is also survived by friends and associates from a lifetime of varied interests, including historic preservation, wilderness canoeing, Scottish culture, hockey, wooden canoe restoration, opera, and travel. Gordon graduated from The Choate School in 1944, received a Bachelor of Architecture from the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1950, Master of Arts from the University of Wisconsin in 1971. He served in the Navy during WW II in the Philippines as an Aviation Electronic Technician. His architectural career included private practice in Wallingford, Connecticut and Winter Park, Florida. He retired from the University of Wisconsin as Campus Architect in 1985. Gordon is preceded in death by his canine companions, Siberian Huskies, Taty and Tristan. Donations may be made to the American Heart Association, the American Diabetes Association, or the Dane County Humane Society. Visitation will be held on Tuesday, November 28, from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. at the CRESS FUNERAL HOME, 3610 Speedway Rd. Funeral services will be held at ST. ANDREWS EPISCOPAL CHURCH, 1833 Regent St., on Wednesday, November 29, at 10:00 a.m. Bon Voyage, Voyageur.